

THE GREENLINING INSTITUTE-APPLICATION

DEVELOPING TOMORROW'S DIVERSE LEADERS AND ADVOCATES

Greenlining seeks talented, self-motivated individuals committed to equality and justice. Academy participants generally have the following traits:

- ◆ track record of working towards social justice
- ◆ ability to work well with diverse groups
- ◆ strong personal initiative and motivation
- ◆ leadership experience or potential, and meaningful involvement in school, the workplace or community
- ◆ open to new ideas

Participants are carefully selected to represent Greenlining's constituency in terms of age, education, work and volunteer experience, political perspective, and ethnic and socio-economic backgrounds. Individuals from all academic disciplines are encouraged to apply; there are no preferred majors.

Applications are available on the Greenlining Institute website at www.greenlining.org/program/academy/index.php. Completed applications must be postmarked to Greenlining by the postmark dates. Applications postmarked after the postmark date will not be considered. A completed application consists of a personal statement, a current resume, two letters of recommendation (must be sent with entire application package) and copies of all higher education transcripts (unofficial transcripts are accepted).
