

Health Pipeline Programs

2008

Apple Valley High Medical and Health Science Technology Academy

Website: <http://schools.avusd.org/?schoolid=12>

Target Group: Middle school and High School Students

This Medical and Health Science Academy provides mentorship, training, internship, advising, tutoring, counseling, scholarships, and leadership training. The academy works to prepare all students with an interest in health science careers to be leaders in the industry while improving scholastic performance.

For more information contact:

Wendy Webb-Watt

Phone: 760-247-7206 x385

E-mail: wendy_webb@avusd.org

Bassett High School Health Academy

Target Group: Middle School and High School Students

The goal is to help prepare students in the Health Academy for a medical career. This program introduces students or exposes them to the medicine world, and what to expect—the shortage of health care workers especially nurses.

For more information contact:

Linda Howard

Phone: 626-931-2800 ext. 3659

E-mail: lhoward@bassett.k12.ca.us

Biology Scholars Program (BSP)

Website: <http://www.bsp.berkeley.edu/>

Target Group: Undergraduate students at the University of California Berkeley

The Biology Scholars Program offers services to low-income and first generation undergraduates at the University of California Berkeley studying the biomedical sciences.

For more information contact:

Arturo Rangel

Phone: (510) 643-1334

E-mail: artrang@berkeley.edu

California Adolescent Nutrition and Fitness

Website: <http://www.canfit.org>

Target Group: Middle School and College/University students

To engage communities and build their capacity to improve the nutrition and physical activity status of low income, 10-14 yr. old, African American, American Indian, Latino, and Asian American/Pacific Islanders in California.

For more information contact:

Arnell Hinkle

Phone: 510-644-1533

E-mail: ahinkle@canfit.org

City College of San Francisco

Website: <http://www.ccsf.edu>

Target Group: College/University Students

Provide assistance in health education and vocational certificates via a culturally appropriate academic process to individuals from diverse communities.

For more information contact:

Sal Nunez

Phone: 415-452-7387

E-mail: snunez@ccsf.edu

COPE Health Solutions

Website: <http://www.copehealthsolutions.org>

Target Group: Middle School, High School, College/University students

Make communities healthier by focusing on all health-professions including: nursing, the full scope of allied health care administration and medicine.

For more information contact:

Jennifer Duquette

Phone: 213-259-024 or 714-469-3803

E-mail: jduquette@copehealthsolutions.org

El Dorado Union High School: Health Academy

Website: <http://www.cougar.eduhsd.k12.ca.us/>

Target Group: High School students

The Health Academy's mission is to support youth in developmental preparation for careers in health care. The services provided are training, internships, advising, tutoring, counseling, scholarships, and mental health support.

For more information contact:

Ruette Carstenson

Phone: 530-622-5081 x222

E-mail: rcarstenson@eduhs.k12.ca.us

Encina High School: Medical Professions Development Program

Website: www.sanjuan.edu/encina.cfm

Target Group: High School students

The Medical Professions Development Program's mission is to prepare students for college by helping them complete A-G requirements and provide exposure and training in healthcare to help students make better informed career choices. They also provide students with basic skills in healthcare to make them qualified applicants to medical professional schools and programs via mentorship, training, internships, advising, tutoring, and counseling.

For more information contact:

Don Brodnansky

Phone: 916- 971-7570

E-mail: drodnansky@sanjuan.edu

FACES for the Future: Health Professions Internship

Website: <http://www.facesforthefuture.org>

Target Group: High School and College/University students

FACES for the Future empowers multi-cultural youth to achieve their appreciations in the health care and Biomedical workforce so as to enhance the well being of our communities.

For more information contact:

Catherine West

Phone: 510-428-3681

E-mail: cwest@mail.cho.org

Foshay Learning Center: Health Careers Academy

Website: <http://www.foshaylc.org/index.jsp?m=9807002>

Target Group: High School students

The goal of the Health Careers Academy is to prepare students to attend college or be able to obtain work in the health care professions in an entry level position. Provide mentorship, training, tutoring, and counseling.

For more information contact:

Karel Lilly

Phone: 323- 373-2700

E-mail: biolilly@aol.com

Galt High School: Health Careers Academy

Target Group: High School Students

Galt High Schools Health Careers Academy's goal is to provide all academy students with an academically rigorous educational program that prepares students for college and/or diverse jobs and career opportunities in the field of health care. The academy provides mentorship, training, internship, advising, tutoring, counseling, scholarships.

For more information contact:

Rebecca Cook

Phone: 209-745-3081 x8

E-mail: bcook@ghsd.k12.ca.us

Grace Davis Health Careers Academy

Website: http://gracedavis.monet.k12.ca.us/health_academy.htm

Target Group: High School Students

The Grace Davis Health Careers Academy provides diverse health career opportunities so that, upon graduation students will be prepared for skilled entry-level jobs and/or entrance into colleges, universities or technical schools.

For more information contact:

Tamara Miller

Phone: (209) 576-4867

E-mail: miller.ta@monet.k12.ca.us

Hall of Health Museum and Children's Hospital

Website: <http://www.hallofhealth.org>

Target Group: Elementary, High School, College/University students

To teach students basic science investigative skills while introducing them to health conditions in their community which they can affect through their own behaviors' and through their career choices.

For more information Contact:

Laura McVittie

Phone: 510-549-1016

E-mail: laura@hallofhealth.org

.....
Health Care Council of Orange County

Website: <http://www.healthoc.com>

Target Group: College/University students

The mission of the health care council is to promote access to improved health for all orange county residents through unified efforts to identify and address of need through research, collaboration, education and advocacy.

For more information contact:

Felix Schwarz

Phone: 714-558-0940

E-mail: felix@healthoc.org

.....
Health Care Workforce Development Program

Website: <http://www.santarosa.edu/healthcareers>

Target Group: Middle School, High School, and College/University students

To promote interest in the health professions and creates opportunities to pursue health careers for a diverse population in Sonoma County.

For more information contact:

Jeannie Dulberg

707-535-3747

jdulberg@santarosa.edu

.....
Health Professions Partnership Initiative (HPPI)

Website: <http://www.ucwellness.org/hppi.html>

Target Group: Middle School Students

HPPI provides mentoring, after-school activities, field trips and training to motivate and support young students into the health professions.

For more information contact:

Maxine Gilkerson

Phone: 510-642-9780

E-mail: gilktat@berkeley.edu

Health Career Connection (HCC)

Website: <http://www.healthcareers.org/main/index.htm>

Target Group: Undergraduate Students

Health Career Connection (HCC) is dedicated to assisting students to make well informed decisions about healthcare careers and gain practical experience in healthcare organizations. HCC provides paid internships, career resources and networking opportunities to undergraduates interested in pursuing careers in healthcare.

For more information

E-mail: info@healthcareers.org

Jordan High School: Aspirations in Medical Services (AIMS)

Website: <http://www.lbusd.k12.ca.us/jordan/Magnets/AIMS/index.htm>

Target Group: High School Students

This College preparatory academy integrated program which prepares student both for college or university and/for the world of work.

For more information contact:

Sabrina Arney

Phone: 562-423-1471 x2452

E-mail: arney@lbusd.k12.ca.us

LabAspire California Public Health Laboratory

Website: http:// www.labaspire.org

Target Group: Undergraduate and Post-Doc Students

LabAspire is designed to provide information about exciting career opportunities in California's Public Health Laboratories. These labs serve the general public by watching for disease producing agents in food, humans, animals, and testing for new threats such as the West Nile Virus, SARS, and Bioterrorism. LabAspire provides training, scholarships, to undergraduates and Post-Doctorate students.

For more information contact:

Linda Whent

Phone: 530-754-0602

E-mail: lswhent@ucdavis.edu

Minority Access to Research Careers-Minority Biomedical Research Support (MARCMBRS)

Website: <http://marcmbrs.ucsc.edu/aboutus.html>

Target Group: Undergraduate and Graduate Students at University of California Santa Cruz

The goals of the MARC and MBRS programs are to increase the numbers and capabilities of minority scientists and science professionals and to prepare students for careers in biomedical research.

For more information contact:

Malika Bell

Phone: (831)459-3761

E-mail: malika@biology.ucsc.edu

Oakland Technical High School Health Academy
Website: http://oaklandtech.com/health_academy.htm
Target Group: High School Students

The Oakland Technical Health Academy has been preparing students for both college and health careers since 1986, through enriched science classes, field trips, internships, and service projects. The Academy prepares high school students for a wide range of clinical health careers in their future.

For more information contact:
David de Leeuw
Phone: 510- 879-3050 x217
E-mail: mr.de@earthlink.net or David.deLeeuw@ousd.k12.ca.us

Oakmont High School: Health Careers Academy
Website: http://ohs.rjuhsd.us/departments/health_academy.htm
Target Group: High School Students

The Oakland High School Health Careers Academy is three (3) year, integrated school-to-career program for high school students interested in health careers. The Health Careers Academy provides mentorship, internships, advising, tutoring, counseling, and scholarships.

For more information contact:
Wes Muller
Phone: 916- 782-3781 x2202
E-mail: wmuller@rjuhsd.us

Oceanside Health Academy
Target Group: High School Students

The Oceanside Health Academy prepares students for further College training and/or entry level positions in allied health field.

For more information contact:
Debbie Foley
Phone: 760-722-6706
E-mail: Debbie.Foley@oside.k12.ca.us

Community Health Works—SFSU and City College SF
Target Group: High School and College/University students
Website: <http://www.communityhealthworks.org>

Community Health Works is the long-standing partnership of City College of San Francisco and San Francisco State University. Our mission is to reduce health inequalities and diversity in the health workforce.

For more information contact:
Mary Beth Love
Phone: 415-338-2708
E-mail: love@sfsu.edu

San Francisco Welcome Back Center

Website: <http://www.e-welcomeback.org>

Target Group: College/University students and Internationally Trained health Professionals

To build a bridge between the pool of internationally trained health workers living in California, and the need for linguistically and culturally competent health services in underserved communities.

For more information contact:

Nancy Mullenax

Phone: 415-561-1953

E-mail: nmullenax@ccsf.edu

.....
Stanford Medical Youth Science Program (SMYSP)

Website: <http://smysp.stanford.edu>

Target Group: High School and College/University students

To increase knowledge about the science and health professions, and other guidance about the College admissions process to low-income and underrepresented ethnic minority students in the communities we serve.

For more information contact:

Judith Ned

Phone: 650-498-4514

E-mail: jned@stanford.edu

.....
Stockdale High School: Medical Academy

Website: <http://smysp.stanford.edu>

Target Group: High School students

The mission of the Medical Academy of Stockdale High School is to develop in every student the skills, knowledge, and attitudes vital to becoming part of tomorrow's health care team. To that end, they establish a supportive partnership made up of skilled staff, parents, and community resources. The Academy provides mentorship, training, advising, and job shadowing.

For more information contact:

Janelle Burke

Phone: 661-664-1231

E-mail: janelle_burke@uhsd.k12.ca.us

.....
Watsonville High School Health Academy

Target Group: High School Students

The Health Academy's goal is to help High School students through High School and into programs and/or colleges. They obtain training/education to pursue their goals of working in the health field.

For more information contact:

Rob Smet

Phone: 831-728-6390 x689

E-mail: Robert_Smet@pvusd.net

UC Davis School of Medicine

Website: <http://som.ucdavis.edu>

Target Group: Middle School, High School, and College/University students

The Mission of UC Davis Health System is discovering and sharing knowledge to advance health. We pursue our mission through the education of physicians, medical investigators and other health-care providers; research into new medical knowledge and applying it to the health challenges that face our world; and patient care and public service for our local and global community.

For more information contact:

Edward D. Dagang

Phone: 530-752-2717

E-mail: medadmsinfo@ucdavis.edu

.....
UCSF School of Medicine Outreach & Academic Advancement (OAA)

Website: <http://www.medschool.ucsf.edu/outreach>

Target Group: High School and Undergraduate Students

The Office of Outreach & Academic Advancement at the UCSF School of Medicine directs the outreach efforts of the School of Medicine. Outreach is targeted toward undergraduate and post graduate individuals who have an interest in pursuing careers in the health sciences. The office also works with the UCSF Fresno Medical Education Program in its outreach programming efforts.

For more information contact:

Valerie Margol

Phone: 415-502-1646

E-mail: margolv@medsch.ucsf.edu
.....